Research Assistance for Faculty, Students, and Researchers
http://library.msstate.edu/help/

ONE-ON-ONE CONSULTATION
Discuss with a research librarian how to access relevant information resources and formulate search strategies for class assignments, papers, presentations, Master’s degree theses, and doctoral dissertations

ASK A LIBRARIAN
Visit library.msstate.edu/help/ to ask a librarian questions through online chat, email, text, or tweet

RESEARCH GUIDES
Provide research assistance, course guides, subject guides, and useful resources compiled by MSU librarians; also create a course or subject guide with assistance of a subject specialist librarian

WORKSHOPS
Attend free face-to-face and online workshops on a range of research and technology topics

OFFICE OF THESIS AND DISSERTATION FORMAT REVIEW
Reviews documents for compliance with university guidelines regarding format after approval by graduate students’ committee members

TECHNOLOGY-EQUIPPED ROOMS AND SPACES
Reserve technology-enhanced classrooms, auditoriums, meeting rooms and presentation rooms for use by MSU faculty, staff, students, departments, and organizations

Access Services
This assists faculty, staff and students with accessing library collections, placing materials on course reserve and borrowing materials from other libraries. Access Services supports faculty and instructors by providing a course reserve service where they can place materials in a course reserve system, allowing them to provide their students access to supplemental reading materials. Library staff handle obtaining materials and ensuring copyright compliance. The unit also obtains materials not found in MSU Libraries through Interlibrary Loan and through the Mississippi Library Partnership, a cooperative developed by MSU Libraries that provides a mechanism for borrowing materials from other libraries in the state.
